INTERNATIONAL NURSES DAY

Irwin Antao, Culsabhat

International Nurses Day (IND) is celebrated around the world on every May 12, the Anniversary of Florence Nightingale's birth also known as "The Lady with the Lamp", considered as the founder of modern Nursing and made significant contribution to the Nursing Practices. The THEME for Intl' Nurses Day 2024 is “OUR NURSES, OUR FUTURE”, THE ECONOMIC POWER OF CARE.

Nurses are referred as the heart and soul of the health care system and they are there when the last breath is taken and also when the first breath is taken. On this Nurses' Day, let us show our gratitude and respect to all the nurses who make a difference in our lives and communities. The COVID 19 pandemic has highlighted how essential are our nurses to our Society Nurses, truly are blessings of God. Anyone who has been to a hospital knows that our nurses are akin to our everyday unsung guardians.

THE TOUCH OF A NURSE

The tender touch of a nurse,
That heals both body and soul,
With love, care and compassion,
The hands so strong and gentle,
Gives strength to the hearts so feeble,
The love of life for the suicidal,
Whispering in the ears of fear,
Courage comes when she is near,
The voice for those, who can't speak,
Puts on her apron and ever smiling,
In a sterile room, patients moaning,
Attends everyone without complaining,
So, dear Nurses, you make us see,
The touch of Grace in humanity.

"Always thank your nurse, sometimes they are the only ones between you and the hearse." ...Warren Beauty

"Our finger prints don't fade from the lives we touched...Judy Blume, the nurse

“Our Patients need your Patience”

POPE FRANCIS HAS APPOINTED
FR. SIMIAO AS AUXILIARY BISHOP OF THE ARCHDIOCESE GOA AND DAMAN.

-Ronnie Dsouza, Mena Cavorim, Chandor

It was a proud moment of joy and honour for the villagers of Chandor, Cavorim and Guridolim as the Pope Francis has appointed Rev. Fr. Simiao Purificacao Fernandes as Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Goa and Daman. Fernandes was born in Guirdolim , Chandor on December 21,1967 and Ordained Priest on May 10,1993 after the seminary studies at Rachol, Salcete, Goa. He is current director of the Pastoral Institute of St. Pius X at old Goa.

Congratulations and warm welcome as bishop of Archdiocese to Father Simiao Fernandes from the people of Goa and from the Goans throughout the world. Looking forward to see that you become the voice of Catholic community in Goa. May the Almighty God bless You Fr. Simiao Fernandes with wisdom and strength as you take up the new responsibility of shepherding the people of Goa. We the Parishioners of Our Lady of Bethlehem (Nossa Senhora de Belem) Chandor, pray and wish you all the best to spread the word of God.

WHAT'S IN A NICKNAME?

Linken Fernandes - Igorjebhatt

It is as well that some animals, objects and traits linked to several villages in Goa as their addnanvam, or nicknames, are simply that, just nicknames. Nicknames, we know, are external to us and are very often imposed on people by others, and we have the choice of either ignoring them or resenting them. As a kid in Bombay, I was thrilled that our village was associated with the buffalo, that fierce stampeding beast from westerns and cowboy comics. The idea also brought to mind the totems of the indigenous tribes in America and the romanticism associated with having, say, a power-packed buffalo, or a fearsome wolf, as a spirit animal or protector.

These totemic or spirit animals perhaps derived from some founding event or legend in the life of a tribe or clan. But as regards Chandor and the buffalo (a quite different version from the American one, as it turned out) one does not recall any story beyond a reference to some unnamed ancestors (purvoz) believing in the connection. This makes the whole notion rather flaky to me now, particularly with people in some unfortunate villages being considered fools, or thieves, or pez-eaters, merely because some benighted ancestors said so some centuries ago!

I think we need to call a time-out on this supposed relationship till we can decide if we want to continue with aliases that seem more like uncomplimentary epithets, or change them, or drop them altogether. Wonhhohmm! Gosh, what was that? Was that a grunt-growl from someone in the paddy field there! Oh, it's you! Take it easy, buffalo buddy, we are only thinking aloud! Nothing against you personally, but this whole nexus between us seems like a huge misunderstanding, don't you think? We do respect you, of course, all the hard work you put in and all, but, perhaps it's time to move on, what? And, who knows, you too resent being associated with us deplorable rascals, right?

You do, do you? Well, well, well... who'da thunk it?!

“YOU DID NOT CHOOSE ME BUT I CHOSE YOU”. (Jn.15:16)

Sr. Juliet Rebelo

Gratitude is an attitude that wells from the HEART. Being a Canossian Sister, that is nearly 24 years of being a Canossian daughter of St. Madalene of Canossa.

God has been so gracious to me; He revealed his boundless GOODNESS and love first through my beloved parents. I salute them for their selfless sacrifices and hardwork to bring us up with love of God and neighbour.

I graduated from Rosary College, Navelim. My parents permitted me to join the Canossian at Andheri, Mumbai in 1997. My first Profession was in 2000 followed by Final profession in 2005. In the year 2001 till date teaching in Canossa Convent School, Mahim. From then till today my family always prayed, cared and supported me. “What I am is all because of what I have received from GOD and from my beloved parents and Siblings. The LORD has always journeyed with me so lovingly and tenderly all through these glorious years. The people have touched my life and with God's grace, I hope I too, have been a BLESSING to others.

I celebrate my vocation, my precious call, my life of dedicated service but above all I celebrate God, His call, His faithfulness, His love and mercy which has been the anchor of my religious life. God did not see my ability or disability but my availability to fulfil my role for the kingdom of God.

I have happy and joyful memories, supportive friendships and enduring relationships. Of course there have also been some paths that my have been slightly difficult to travel.

Yet inspite and despite the odd stumbling blocks along the way, I have travelled joyfully these 24 years. I received freely valuable prayers, appreciation, support encouragement, understanding and trust, forgiveness from all.

To follow Christ entails responsibility. God has to stand out in one's life Journey. God is always faithful and merciful to me.

I need to remain faithful in HIS LOVE. I totally appreciate my commitment and dedication for the beautiful & wonderful years of vowed life. (Chastity, Poverty, Obedience).

My deep faith and trust in God alone has enabled me to live my “YES” in a variety of roles which I have fulfilled with dedication and responsibility.

I am strongly reminded that I belong to GOD.

It doesn't matter where I go in life or what I achieve, or what I do, what matters most is WHO I HAVE BESIDE ME ALONG THE WAY!

May God Bless each one of you.

Thank you, God.

THE CHURCH AS THE BODY OF CHRIST

Silfo Pereira- Raurora Chandor

The Church as the body of Christ. Church provide a place of gathering for people focus only on spiritual relationship with God.

A Church is not a disco club. When you come to church dress well and in proper manners. Some people come to Church as if they have for fashion show. But that doesn't make you a Christian. The body of human being is a temple of GOD.

The way we dress affects the way we think. Dress well nicely whether you are rich or poor, neatly being well dressed is a beautiful from politeness. Being well dressed of good manners it's not about the dress you wear. But the life you lead in the dress.

Being a Christian is not simply showing people that you go to Church every Sunday does not make you a good person. But how we act towards others seven days a week. You go to Church and act like the perfect Christian on Sunday?

But talk about people, create drama, judge others, lie, act fake? Fight with neighbors. Change your mind and heart going to Church? People clean the face nor heart.

They are reading your life and watching how you live. God sees what you do and how you treat people. That's what real matters.

God wants you to be good person all the time not just one hour a week treating everyone well. A person character is shown through their action in life not where they sit on Sunday. Going to Church does not make you a good person. A true Christian live by example showing others the true meaning of Christianity. Be the light God call you to be. Be a true Christian.

“LET’S RAISE A TOAST TO ALL WOMEN”

In today's day and age, we have fortunately seen a rise in a women's understanding of their power and capabilities. Women currently have a great mission to transform lives and provide well-being to another woman globally. So that in a true sense, they feel empowered, liberated from within and healthy. Women's unwavering positivity and commitment to making a difference in the lives of others serve as an inspiration to those around them.

“Life will throw many challenges at us and if we give up we fail but if we keep on going we will ultimately win”. Women's persistence, never give up attitude, and ultimate dominance over those challenges made them stronger and more confident. We radiate patience and kindness that we showed ourselves during this transition. It is a tough process, but we embrace bravely. Turn process, but we embrace bravely”.

Turn your impediment into your biggest strength. Be the brightest star in the sky. Never stop believing in what you can do. Dream big and have the self-belief to manifest these dreams into reality. I end with these affirmation and with empowering words for all women. I am capable of achieving anything I choose.

I am an amazing woman who deserves a happy life.

I am strong, determined & valued.

ALBERTO PEREIRA

God looked around His garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the Earth and saw your tired face
He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest.
God always takes the best.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone. Part of us went with you, the day
God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide. Though we cannot see you,
you are always by our side.

There will be Eucharistic Celebration on 17th May 2024

ASCENSION OF OUR LORD

-Mrs. Brenda Savio Dsilva, Culsabhat

The Ascension is a liturgical solemnity celebrated by all the Christian churches. It falls on the fortieth day after Easter Sunday.

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, “All power on heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go there forth, and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Teach them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always until the end of the age.” (Mt 28: 16-20) The disciples were filled with joy. (Lk 24:52) Because Jesus died, rose and now ascended, the gates of heaven are now open, the gates of eternal life.

We have the certainty that if Jesus has risen and ascended into heaven, the same destiny awaits us, since he is the First Fruit. (1 Cor 15:20)
