NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS

Jaret de Silva
Mena Cavorim, Chandor.

We are at the threshold, or actually stepped into an eventful and hopeful 2025, and dear 2024, just like so many before, has breezed through. “kednatulean ek voros gelem nhu gho ya”? as many will say in their sweet tone. Most of us have achievements to cherish, memories to treasure, events to record, and, equally many have misses and disappointments to rue over. Come the New year and we have come back a full circle, and at the starting point where we reach out for our pens and start jotting down New Year Resolutions- setting our goals and plans to achieve them for 2025 the New Year- The million Dollar question is - IS IT WORTH IT?

Year after year, we sit conducting the same exercise of planning, and at the end of the year, many of us come face to face with the truth NOT ACHIEVED!!!!. We begin to compare what we have achieved and what we haven't, what “the other” has achieved and we haven't. Disappointment and dejection begin to set in. we get lost in the in the world of negativity for not having achieved as much as we planned to, or as much as “the other” has achieved. It is human nature to lean towards this trend of comparison and negativity, since we as a generation, have psyched ourselves to think and teach, that, success is paramount and the true way of life. Failures and misses are looked down upon by our society, little realizing that failures and underachievement should not put us down but should be steppingstones to achieve more.

Life must be directed towards celebrating and thanking God for even the smallest of success' in our life. Once we begin to relish those little achievements, positivity begins to creep in, and drives us towards bigger achievements. St. Ignatius of Loyola in his spirituality tells us about importance to the “Magis”, which means more. Little gains when cherished, lead us to greater things. These things need to be achieved and celebrated for the Greater glory of God.

Fortunately, or unfortunately, technology has made huge strides in this world and in our lives, and, in turn, made us slaves to its possibilities, a fact that none of us can deny. Today, technology is so dominant, that, humans have almost begun to replace the importance of God with technology and cannot think beyond it. Human robots! The drive for success and achievements based on technology, has made us forget the two important aspects of “LIFE”- God and Family. A recent survey conducted in 2024, about, where people spend most of their time, shows a quantum leap from time spent with God and family from earlier years to time spent online in today's times. The question is – IS IT WORTH IT?

Should we use Technology as a backpack, or God and Family, when we sit down to set our goals for the new year? Should we think only about success and achievements while setting our goals for the New Year? Should we think only about ourselves when we set our goals for the New Year? Surely, we need make a New year Resolution to “THINK” – Think of our Family, Our community, Our Village, Our Environment, Our Nation, and Our World, to make it a better place to live in, and most importantly to keep GOD as the center-piece of our Resolutions, for “ I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, Plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you a hope and a future. (Jeremiah 29:11)

GOODBYE 2024 WELCOME 2025

Celine Coelho Furtado
Cavorim

The year 2024 has gone by and let us unitedly join our hands to thank GOD for keeping us alive to enjoy the NEW YEAR 2025. One step at a time and keep moving forward, if the year gone by, was stressful and difficult situations had an impact on your life in 2024. They give us the grit and perseverance and a deeper sense of self. One may have experienced “HARD TIMES” like a death in the family, illness that could end being fatal, losing a job or other complexities. There will be times of great heartache when you are compelled to make life-altering decisions in which your emotions and mind will play roles which oppose each other. You should take it easy and be optimistic by indulging in living an enjoyable life in 2025.

One should give oneself the time and space to introspect because after every stormy weather there is serenity. When an opportunity strikes, grab it before it is too late to repent and walk ahead in the path of life, that has been lost in the rush of time.

Welcome the NEW YEAR 2025 by LIVING without pretending, HEARING without attacking, LOVING without expecting, SPEAKING without offending and above all, one has to believe that faith in GOD gives meaning and purpose to human life.

Let us look forward to a blissful year and follow this Recipe. Take a full cup of PATIENCE, a heartful of LOVE, add a dash of LAUGHTER and a headful of UNDERSTANDING. Sprinkle KINDNESS generously and add plenty of FAITH. Mix this well and spread it over a period of LIFETIME. Serve it to EVERYBODY you meet. This will bring about success in your life. So give yourself a push and welcome 2025 with a bang.

May you have HAPPINESS in your home, PEACE in your heart, HEALTH in your body and WEALTH in your life and be always blessed with these priceless treasures.

Cheers to A HAPPY NEW YEAR..... So GOODBYE 2024 WELCOME 2025

EXPOSITION OF ST. FRANCIS XAVIER: A JOURNEY THROUGH TIME

Ivonne Caldeira Antao,
Culsabhat

The Exposition of St. Francis Xavier's relics has been a cornerstone of Goan religious and cultural life since 1554, shortly after his death in 1552. This revered event, now held every ten years, has evolved significantly over the centuries. In the 18th and 19th centuries, some families from Chandor embarked on a unique pilgrimage to Old Goa. Travelling by boat along the River Zuari, they halted at Banastarim for a week-long stay at Old Goa, bringing along cooking implements and supplies for the journey.

The exposition, though well-established by the 1970s, was more intimate and community-focused than today. The number of pilgrims was modest, and the event emphasized spiritual devotion over the tourism-driven aspects now prevalent. Groups of pilgrims carried candles, flowers, and images of St. Francis Xavier as they walked to the Basilica of Bom Jesus. The 1974 exposition was not just a religious gathering but also a community event, fostering a deep sense of togetherness. In those times, the absence of digital technology made the exposition a highly localized experience. There were no live broadcasts or social media updates, which allowed for a personal and deeply spiritual connection. The focus was on face-to-face interactions and shared faith, creating a unique bond among attendees.

Today, the St. Francis Xavier Exposition has grown into one of Asia's largest religious events, drawing thousands of local and international pilgrims. While the spiritual essence remains, the event has embraced modern elements. Large screens ensure that vast crowds can follow the services, and digital platforms allow remote participation for those unable to attend. Facilities for the elderly, such as wheelchairs, ensure inclusivity, and there is greater coordination among departments to manage the massive influx of people. The exposition now blends sacred devotion with cultural celebration. Religious items, books, art museums and souvenirs highlight the commercial aspect, but the vibrant community atmosphere remains strong. Goa transforms into a hub of faith and festivity, making the exposition a pilgrimage and a celebration of Goan heritage. This cherished event continues to honour its historical and spiritual significance while embracing the conveniences of modern life, ensuring its relevance for future generations.

THE STRENGTH OF SMALL ACTIONS

Antonio E. D'Costa, Cotta Chandor

In today's fast-paced, consumer-driven world, the art of saving, giving, and performing acts of kindness often takes a backseat. We are constantly bombarded with advertisements, promotions, and social media trends that encourage us to spend, spend, and spend some more. However, the true power lies not in lavish spending, but in the simple acts of saving, giving, and extending kindness to others. These simple yet profound acts possess the power to transform our lives, communities, and the world at large.

The Wisdom of Small Savings

Saving is not merely a financial discipline; it's a mindset that cultivates responsibility, patience and foresight. By adopting mindful spending habits and setting aside a portion of our income, we secure our financial future, achieve long-term goals, and create a safety net for unforeseen circumstances. Small savings may seem insignificant, at first, but they accumulate over the period of time, empowering us to overcome financial obstacles and pursue our passions and secure a comfortable, independent retirement.

The Beauty of Giving Back

Giving back to society is an act of kindness that enriches our lives with purpose and fulfillment. Every contribution, regardless of size, makes a significant difference in the lives of those in need. Whether supporting education, healthcare, environmental conservation, or disaster relief, our generosity fosters a sense of community and promotes positive change. Beyond monetary donations, volunteering our time, skills, and resources can have a profound impact, nurturing a culture of compassion and empathy.

The Spiritual Rewards of Kindness

Performing kind deeds cultivates virtues of compassion, empathy, and selflessness, bringing joy and solace to both giver and receiver. By visiting the elderly, the sick, the lonely, we offer companionship, comfort, and hope. Our acts of kindness create a ripple effect, inspiring others to follow suit and fostering a more harmonious and supportive community. Additionally, visiting clergy homes and religious institutions allows us to connect with spiritual leaders and seek guidance and blessings.

The Benefits of Frugality or Thriftiness

Embracing a frugal mindset extends beyond financial prudence; it promotes environmental sustainability, reduces consumption and waste, and fosters a deeper appreciation for life's simple pleasures. By avoiding impulsive purchases and prioritizing experiences over material possessions, we reduce stress and anxiety, leading to a more peaceful and balanced life.

Overcoming Challenges and Criticism

As we embark on this journey of saving, giving, and kindness, we may encounter challenges and criticism. Some may view our frugal or tight-fistedness lifestyle as miserly or stingy, while others may feel pressured to keep up with social expectations of spending and consumption. To overcome these obstacles, it is imperatively necessary to communicate effectively with loved ones, explaining the reasons behind our choices and emphasizing the long-term benefits of our actions.

Conclusion

The power of small savings, kind deeds, and giving back lies in its simplicity and its ability to create a ripple effect. By making conscious choices, we can build a secure financial future for ourselves and our loved ones. By sharing our blessings and extending kindness to others, we can contribute to a better world and experience the profound joy of giving. As we step into 2025 and beyond, let us embrace the power of small actions and make a positive difference in our lives and the lives of others. “Happy Feast and Prosperous New Year”.

SOLEMNITY OF MARY, THE MOTHER OF GOD.

Mrs. Rajamma Gomes
Igorjebhat

1st of January 2025, a New Year has dawn. Old calander is replaced by a new one, in electronic items will be set up with new dates. The whole world is in festive mood . Catholic church celebrate this day as the feast of Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God (Theotokos -Mother of God- Bearer of God). History will take us back to 431 AD when the council of Ephesus was convened and the council declared Mary as the Mother of God. At that time a major controversy facing the church was NESTORIANISM, a doctrine put forth by NESTORIUS, Patriarch of Constantinople. They upheld Jesus as two different persons, Jesus the human and Jesus the divine and refused to accept Jesus as unified one person. There fore they refused to accept Mary as Theotoko- Mother of God. Through many occasions heaven declared that Mary had concieved the Divine Son, Son of God the Almighty. To make it short I will give few Bible references ---Lk:1:30-31(Angel Gabriel visits virgine Mary with the good news), Lk:1:42 (Mary's visit to Elizabeth , when Elizabeth filled with Holy Spirit addresses Mary as the Mother of her Lord. Angels visit shepherds and announces the birth of the Saviour (1k:22:8-10).

By being the Mother' of God does not mean Mary created Jesus in His Divine nature. Catechism of the Catholic Church says " every spiritual soul is created immediately by God and not produced by parents.

Fr. John Hardson said" Bad Mariology (theology of Mary) is bad Christology(theology of Christ). Mary became the mothe of her redeemer and Mary became redeemed by her divine son. Mary could not understand the divine plan of the Father and her role in the great mission of salvation to the entire humanity, prayerfully she treasured everything in her heart. Today, the first day of the year 2025, let us contemplate on what we have treasured in our hearts. We too may not fully understand the meaning and purpose of our lives, about death and our eternal life. Even then let us prayerfully submit to the Divine Power and admit that we are the hand made of the Lord, and let His will be done with us

As it is the beginning of the new year, I think, it is proper to wish all of you a very HAPPY NEW YEAR. MAY THE LOVE, JOY AND PEACE OF BABY JESUS BE WITH ALL OF YOU. HAVE A GREATLY BLESSED YEAR.

THE FIRST GOAN SAINT

Mrs Brenda Savio D'Silva
Culsabhat

Saint Jose Vaz was born in Benaullim on April 21st 1651 and passed away in Kandy, Sri Lanka on 16th January 1711. He was an Oratorian Priest. He is known as the Friday miracle worker, he was born on a Friday, performed most of his miracles on a Friday and passed away on a Friday. From a young age he was concerned about the poor and would share some of his food with the poor who came to his home. He would climb down his jackfruit tree to visit the Church at night and the doors of the Church would open. He had a great love for Mother Mary and he consecrated himself as a 'slave of Mary' by penning a deed of bondage. He received good education in Goa. When he heard that there was no Priest in Ceylon for 50 years, he expressed his desire to serve there. However he was sent to the mission of Canara where he performed the miracle of dazzling lights and springs of water on the hills in Mudipu in parched area which made his assailants flee.

He entered Ceylon disguised as a poor person and met the Catholics there and during his stay of 24 years there he build 15 Churches and 400 Chapels and seventy thousand Catholics. He was imprisoned on charges of being a foreign spy. There he learnt the local language and translated many prayer books in Sinhalese and Tamil. He always kept sacks of rice and when the poor came to his Church, he would distribute rice to them.

Our Saint Jose Vaz inspires us to gain strength and courage from the power of the Cross and overcome all obstacles for the love of Jesus Christ. He is also an inspiration for Catechists to work tirelessly for the Lord even in challenging times. Love of God makes one very humble and this was his remarkable quality. Despite his good upbringing and high posts he held he preferred to walk barefoot and have frugal meals. Like Saint Jose Vaz may our hearts too burn with fire for the love of God and Mother Mary and in service for our fellow beings, especially our families and the ignored and neglected.

KAABI ART: THE DYING FOLK ART OF GOA

Irwin Antao,
Culsabhat

Kaavi Kalé, or Kaavi art, is a traditional mural and ancient form of painting that holds rich cultural significance in Goa. With its intricate designs, vibrant colours, and spiritual symbolism, Kaavi art represents a significant part of Goa's heritage.

This art form evolved as a fusion of indigenous Goan traditions and Portuguese influences, blending Hindu and Christian motifs. It was initially used in temples, houses, and churches to decorate walls, ceilings, and altars, imparting a sense of divine beauty. The technique involves applying a paste of red oxide to a surface, then etching motifs with tools. Known for its intricate details, the art also incorporates a white sandblasted background. The materials used include seashells, clean river sand, red laterite soil (tambi mati), jaggery, and other natural components.

Another similar art form, Sgraffito, commonly involves the use of stone lime instead of shell lime. In the Sgraffito technique, white lime plaster is applied over coloured plaster, and the etching process reveals the coloured layer beneath. Kaavi Kalé, however, does this in reverse: white lime plaster is applied first, followed by the kaavi layer.

Despite its cultural importance, Kaavi art is facing a significant decline. One of the main reasons for this decline is the gradual loss of traditional knowledge and skills, with the younger generation showing little interest in learning this art form. Furthermore, the rise of modern construction techniques and materials, such as concrete and steel, has led to the replacement of traditional architectural styles.

Shri Sagar Naik Mule, a Goan Kaavi artist, has been instrumental in reviving this art form and even presented it at the G20 Goa Summit. However, there is hope for Kaavi art's revival due to the increasing interest in heritage tourism. As tourists flock to Goa to experience its rich culture and history, there is growing demand for traditional Goan Kaavi paintings. The Goa Heritage Action Group (GHAG) is also working to secure a GI Tag for this art form. The revival of Kaavi art depends on the collective efforts of the community, government, and cultural organizations.

ENSURING SAFETY AND SECURITY: A WAKE UP CALL.

Ronnie D'souza
Mena Cavorim, Chandor

For many outsiders, Goa is seen as a "Mini Gulf", attracting people from various states in search of employment. They work across different sectors, including construction and Domestic help, and often live in rental accommodations provided by Goans. While many come with genuine intentions, there have been instances where some individuals take advantage of the trust extended to them. Reports of thefts, violence and other crimes highlight the need for Goans to remain vigilant. Greed for money sometimes leads locals to rent room's to unknown individuals without proper verification. This can result in serious consequences such as robberies and even loss of life. Criminals often gain the trust of their landlords, learn the households routines and plan crimes like theft or harm. To Prevent such incidents, Goans must prioritise safety. Avoid renting out Room's to unknown individuals without proper background checks, especially when women or children are alone in the house. Keep an eye on strangers in your area and report suspicious activity to the Police immediately. Remember our safety is our Responsibility. While the Police are here to help, they have limited resources and cannot monitor every household. Stay alert, act wisely and protect yourself and your family.

1. "For I know the plans I have for you" declares the Lord "Plans to prosper you and not to harm you; plans to give you hope and a future" Jeremiah 29:11

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is with great joy that we come together to celebrate "2025 - the Pilgrims of Hope Jubilee"; an invitation for Catholics around the world to renew our relationship with God, each other, and all of creation, in celebration of that most central aspect of Christian faith: hope.

As we look around our world today, it can be rather difficult to find that sense of hope. Climate change, the plight of refugees, poverty around the world..... there is so much pain and suffering in our world today that often, things can all seem rather hopeless. But however overwhelming that all might feel, we need to remind ourselves that we are Pilgrims of Hope with our own role to play.

The Year of Jubilee invites us to reflect on that responsibility and embrace the hope we find in the resurrected Christ; to use it to renew and rebuild our sense of faith, our Christian call to mission, and our mandate to love and serve one another and all of creation. Let us all keep praying and fellowshiping over the coming months; that the Holy Spirit will guide and inspire us as we seek to become all that God is calling us to be. Let us all stay with the Lord on our journey. Romans 15:13. "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in Him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit."

May God bless you in this 2025 - Holy Year of Jubilee.
