ENRICH OTHERS THIS LENT SAYS POPE FRANCIS

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent and all over the world, many Christians fast on Ash Wednesday and on Fridays during the Lenten season. Pope Francis asks us to reconsider the heart of this activity. He says fasting must never be superficial. He often quotes the early Christian mystic John Chrysostom who said, "No act of virtue can be great if it is not followed by advantage for others. So, no matter how much time you spend fasting, no matter how much you sleep on a hard floor and eat ashes and sigh continually, if you do no good to others, you do nothing great.

Pope Francis reminds us that penance and self-denial must truly enrich others. He suggests that even more than candy or alcohol, we fast from indifference towards others--He writes, "Indifference to our neighbour and to God also represents a real temptation for us Christians. Each year during Lent we need to hear once more the voice of the prophets who cry out and trouble our conscience. Whenever our interior life becomes caught up in its own interests and concerns, there is no longer room for others, no place for the poor. God's voice is no longer heard, the quiet joy of his love is no longer felt and the desire to do good fades. We end up being incapable of feeling compassion at the outcry of the poor, weeping for other person's pain and feeling a need to help them, as though all this were someone else's responsibility and not our own.

CAT

Cat is my pet
The best pet I have ever met
Its name is whitey
He likes to eat fish
He likes to wake up before the sunrise
And then he wakes up with his cries
Oh! what a joy he brings each day
That drives all my sadness away
And while we are praying he comes and sit with us
I am happy to have such a lovely pet
The best pet I have ever met

A TREE COMPARISON

The leaf people: In our life we come across people who are like leaves, they are there with you, they will give you shade, but we cannot really depend on people who are like leaves because as soon as seasons change in your life they are gone.

The branch people: There are people in our life like branches, much better and stronger than leaves, but you need to carefully test the branch as some maybe broad and thick and some may just break away. People like branches will be there with you as season change but if you have a heavy storm in your life; it's possible you could just lose them.

The root people: If you have people in your life like roots you have the greatest blessings, why? Because they are the ones that hold on to you, they fed you and nourish you. No matter how big the storm is they will try their best and will always hold on to you. Take a minute to reflect on your life. How many leaves, branches and roots do you have around you? And which part of a tree you are to others? Are you a root, are you a branch or are you just a leaf? ~

BE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

Nikil Raj, an young man paralysed from neck downwards has a great message to the whole world. Just eighteen months back, he was a strong muscular man , undergoing training to become a police inspector. Riding motorcycle was his passion. Due to his proud ego, he would make a great show on the bike. One day, he took the new pulsar of his friend and like an arrow shot in the air, he was flying on high speed. Balancing with one hand he was trying to remove his mobile from his pocket. All his expertise did not save him. He lost the balance and the bike rammed into an electric pole. After three months when he regained his senses, he had to swallow the bitter truth that never again he can use his hands and legs for he was paralysed from neck downwards. What words can I use to explain his mental agony? He begged with every nurse, every friend and every relative to be merciful to him and to relieve him from this torture. Our God is a great God who can work good for those whom He has called according to His purpose. (Rom 8:28). A priest would visit the patients very often. Gently, lovingly the priest would caress the lifeless hand of Nikil and after few days the priest succeeded to calm down Nikil and could open conversation with him. The word of God is alive and active, sharper than double edged sword, it cuts all the way thought to where the soul and spirit meets. (Heb:4:12). Nikil's soul was stirred and wisdom dawned unto him and he understood the real meaning of life and the reason of real joy that no one can take away. Never again he felt guilty or sorry for himself. Even though, born as a Hindu, he understood the greatness of suffering and death of Jesus on the cross. He is a great evangelist today. He has a great message to the undisciplined youth, to the alcoholics, to the drug addicts and to all those who abuse their body "surely you know that you are God's temple and God's spirit lives in you. If any one destroys God's temple God will destroy him. (1 Cor 3:16,17). He also adds up when he talks to the youth. "Obey your parents, because they know what is the best for you, and also fear the lord, your creator". After two years he could sit on a wheel chair. Many retreat centers take him to share his testimony. He also observed that people seem to be heavily burdened, there is no smile on their face. To such people he says, "Be joyful always, ....be thankful in all circumstances". (1 The 5:16-18).

If that priest were not to hold Nikil close to his heart and enkindle the fire of love and inspire him to face life with deeper wisdom who knows for how many years Nikil had to curse himself and all those around him? How miserable his life would be!!!!.

My beloved ones, forgetting own pains if we can comfort someone who is more afflicted how great it would be!!! Don't we also desire that when we are down with sicknesses or highly depressed with various problems, someone could visit us, sit close to us, say few comforting words? In 2 Cor 7: 6 St .Paul says, God who comforts the humble comforted us by sending Titus". St. Paul said this when he was in Macedonia, where he had to face a lot of problems. Whenever we are in the midst of troubles we pray that God may come down and help us. Many of us are not fortunate to meet Jesus face to face and saving us from our troubles but surely He will send some one to assist us in our needs. Dear friends, there are so many people around us who are longing to be saved from their troubles. Like Titus let us go ahead and be a comforter. A little write up I happened to read long, long ago and I feel it may make a good sense if I mention it here. It seems in a small house, during a family function suddenly the current went off. Father of the house called his son and asked him to light a candle and bring. The boy at once brought a blighted candle, instead of keeping on a table or a stand, he went from room to room and finally he walked outside the house with the lighted candle. The boy's father asked him "what are you doing? Please keep it in the hall so that people can see". The boy's reply was very thought provoking, he said, "dad I am looking out where there is darkness, wherever I go with the candle there is light". How correct, wherever there is light there is no darkness.

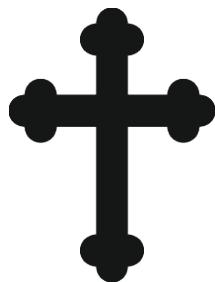

If a person has the light of the Lord, wherever he goes, whom ever he meets he will radiate his light and those who are in the darkness shall see the light and be saved. Let us realise that there are hundreds around us like Nikil Raj desperately looking out for a ray of light that will lead them to life of joy and peace. During this lent season let us earnestly desire and make every effort to drive out all the darkness from us and pray to be filled with the light of love and compassion so that we ourselves can be comforted and then in turn can comfort many around us. A word of caution, those who shun the light will be confined to deep darkness, unable to see the tears of others and also preventing others to see your tears. Oh! what a pitiable life!! how unfortunate they are!!!
